Kristina Star Clark, age 25, of Tomah, Wisconsin, passed away Sunday, October 5, 2014. She was born December 21, 1988. Tina was a 2007 graduate of Winter High School in Winter, WI.

Tina worked in Duluth, MN as an assistant manager of a hotel for a few years before moving back to Winter to help her parents at their hotel. She also worked at a BP Station where she met a customer who caught her eye, Cade Clark. They were united in marriage November 8, 2013, at the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Tomah.

In her spare time she enjoyed four wheeling, shooting guns, sightseeing and bowling. Tina was a good mom and loved her kids more than anything.

She is survived by her husband, Cade Clark and her children, Summer Block, Clayton Magnuson and Gregory Cade Clark, her parents, Dale and Tammy Magnuson and father, Frank Kopa, her siblings, Eric (Linda) Magnuson, Kyle (Kim Soo-young) Magnuson and Brandy Kopa, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father-in-law, Greg Clark.

Funeral services will be held Sunday, October 12, 2014, 3:00 p.m. at the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Tomah. Pastor Edwin Stigen will officiate. Family and friends are invited for visitation Sunday from 1:00 p.m. until the time of service at the church. The Torkelson Funeral Home of Tomah is assisting the family with arrangements.
